Frequently Asked Questions

The study of Language and Literature and the development of the relevant skills is divided into 3 areas of exploration (AOE). What are they?	The 3 areas of exploration are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Readers, writers and texts. Students are introduced to the skills and approaches required to closely examine texts as well as to introduce metacognitive awareness of the nature of the discipline • Time and Space. Students' understanding of the open, plural, or cosmopolitan nature of texts ranging from advertisements to poems will be broadened. • Intertextuality: Connecting Texts. Students will gain an awareness of how texts can provide critical lenses to reading other texts and of how they can support a text's interpretation by expanding on it or question it by providing a different point of view.
What is the learner portfolio?	The learner portfolio is a place for a student to explore and reflect upon literary and non-literary texts, and to establish connections among them and with the areas of exploration (AOE) and the central concepts in the subject.
Is the learner portfolio compulsory?	Yes
Will it be submitted to IB?	Yes, when IB calls for it.
Is it graded internally and externally?	No. But there will be periodic checks that there are adequate quality reflections and responses in the learner portfolio.
Where is the place of learner portfolio in the assessment requirement?	It is a space in which students can prepare for assessment. The learner portfolio will help you to make decisions about the most appropriate and productive connections between the works you have studied and the assessment components. In short, it prepares you for both the external and internal assessment.
What is the timeline?	Through your two years in the IBDP.
What is the HL essay?	The HL essay requires students to construct a focused, analytical argument examining the work from a broad literary or linguistic perspective.
